Ruritans Hold Successful Sale

Wives proved to be club helpers, too, as Spout Spring Ruritans made a tremendous pot of Brunswick stew for Saturday's sale at the Spout Spring schoolhouse. The Ruritans say "thank you" to all their customers and friends for making the day a success. Ruritan members who stirred the stew (and did a lot more work, besides) include (from left): Gene Davis, Al Reynolds, Kit Reynolds, James Cheatham and Roger Pillow. The wives who helped include (from left): Juanita Cheatham, Marvis Reynolds, Iva Pillow, Vernell Reynolds, Betty Davis and Dot Reynolds.

McCLENNY ATTENDS SCS MEETING

Robert E. McClenny, Jr., District Conservationist, attended the annual meeting of the Virginia Chapter, Soil Conservation Society of America, in Lynchburg on Sept. 18-19, 1970. This meeting was attended by 150 officers, delegates, and their wives. The Virginia Chapter (organized in 1949) consists of more than 200 members located throughout Virginia and representing a number of agencies and people interested in Conservation.

The Virginia Chapter is affiliated with the Soil Conservation Society of America, which has headquarters in Ankeny, Iowa. This is an international organization consisting of 13,000 members in the United States, Canada, and 80 countries around the world.

The objective of the Society is promoting increased interest in the proper use of soil and water and other natural resources. Efforts are directed to inspiring interest in Conservation by working with youth groups and educational institutions along with many other organizations and people.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Travis T. Wooldridge, who passed away October 1, 1965.

A broken heart is all we have. Since God called you away. Your memory is with us all the time

And we love you more each day.

It was God's will for you to go, God wanted only the best, So He called you to be with him, Forever and ever in the land of rest.

We only hope that one day, God will call us to that land Then all of us together Will be a family again.

Sadly missed by his wife, daughters and grandchildren. 10/1/1p

LEGAL NOTICE

VIRGINIA: In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County -- September 25, 1970.

RE: Douglas Spencer, deceased

SHOW CAUSE AGAINST DISTRIBUTION

It appearing that a report of the accounts of William L. Wilson, administrator of Douglas Spencer, deceased , and of the debts and demands against the estate, has been filed in the Clerk's Office, and that six months has elapsed since the qualification, on motion of the personal representative it is ordered that the creditors of, and all others interested in, the estate, show cause, if any they can on the 27th day of October 1970, before this court at its courtroom against the payment and delivery of the estate to the distributees, they being the brothers, sisters, and children of deceased brother and sister, named in the list of heirs of said decedent, dated August 8, 1969, and filed in this proceeding, viz: Queenie Spencer, Mary Spencer, Martha Spencer Armwood, George Spencer, Jesse Spencer, Louis P. Spencer, Lawrence Spencer, Chas Megginson and Robert Spencer, without requiring refunding bonds; and the interest of decedent's brother, John Spencer, (who has no known spouse or descendants), depending upon his having been alive at the time of decedent's death, July 26, 1969, and if it is not known and cannot be shown by the exercise of reasonable diligence whether he was alive at the decedent's death, then further to show cause at said time and place against distributing the estate solely among the other above - named brothers, sisters, nephew and niece, as being those who would be entitled thereto if it were shown that the said John Spencer were dead at that particular time.
